

Evening Star Aria

A. Thaddeus Perry

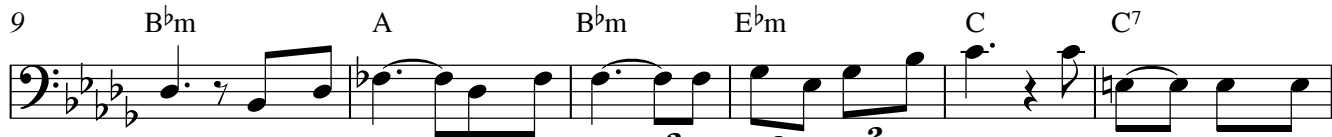

Andy Gaus

Baritone

The eve-ning star shines in the twi- light. And her-alds the com-ing of night blots the eve-ning star out. Though I beg, plead and pray, sigh and night. It bright-ens the skies all a- lone. And then when dark comes it is shout. With night's com- ing it flick-ers a- way. No ca- jo- ling can then make it

Bar.

Bar.

flown. Eve-ning star. Eve-ning star! My love-ly eve-ning star! Like the eve-ning stay. A- way, A- way, so far, far a- way! The last trem-bling

Bar.

star All my dreams are. They shine for a mo-ment and fall. And there's ray With- ers a- way. And de- parts with a shud- der- ing sigh. Leav- ing

Bar.

no- thing left at all. The I, all a- lone here, With a wish and a tear, on-ly the des- o- late sky. While

Bar.

In the midst of de- pair, Shout a curse to the air. For my dreams, my hopes, have

Bar.

strayed too far and flick-ered out like the eve-ning star!